

Present Perfect - Answers

Change these sentences into the Present Perfect.

I live in London.	I have lived in London
I went to school.	I have been to school
I am watching the football.	I have watched football
We saw a lot of films.	We have seen a lot of films
You are a bad boy.	You have been a bad boy
I didn't visit Spain.	I haven't visited Spain
I don't go to school.	I haven't been to school
He didn't steal your bike.	He hasn't stolen your bike
I wasn't watching the football.	I haven't been watching football.
They didn't help us at all.	They haven't helped us at all

Correct the sentences.

1. Where have been?
Where have you been?
2. have you done what?
What have you done?
3. Why haven't you did it?
Why haven't you done it?
4. What have you doing?
What have you been doing?_
5. Why haven't been you coming to English classes?
Why haven't you been coming to English classes?
6. She hasn't spoked to me all morning.
She hasn't spoken to me all morning
7. They hasn't done any work this morning.
They haven't done any work this morning
8. He been causing a lot of trouble.
He has been causing a lot of trouble
9. They has help us a lot this week.
They have helped us a lot this week
10. She has went on holiday.
She has been on holiday

downloaded at

English Language Space Station.com

Present Perfect.

Change these sentences into the Present Perfect.

I live in London.
I went to school.
I am watching the football.
We saw a lot of films.
You are a bad boy.
I didn't visit Spain.
I don't go to school.
He didn't steal your bike.
I wasn't watching the football.
They didn't help us at all.

Correct the sentences.

11. Where have been?

12. have you done what?

13. Why haven't you did it?

14. What have you doing?

15. Why haven't been you coming to English classes?

16. She hasn't spoked to me all morning.

17. They hasn't done any work this morning.

18. He been causing a lot of trouble.

19. They has help us a lot this week.

20. She has went on holiday.
